Boy, 16, killed; one hurt

A 16-year-old Granite City youth was killed and a Granite City boy was hurt in a one-car accident at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Marshallville, Mo. Robby Gale Henke, 16, of 115 Arlington Drive, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Francis Hospital, Washington, Mo., according to a Missouri Highway patrol officer.

Mr. Henke was a passenger in a car driven by Brian T. Coyle, 16, of No. 4 Shirwin Drive, who was treated for minor cuts to the back at St. Francis Hospital, according to police. He was released after treatment.

The car, driven by Coyle, was en route on Missouri Highway 94, three miles east of Marshallville, Mo., when the car went out of control, crossed the highway twice, went down an embankment and reportedly overturned several times, throwing Mr. Henke from the car.

He was born in Hillsboro, Ill., and resided in Panama, Ill., with his family until moving to Granite City five years ago. He was a sophomore student at Granite City High School North.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norton (Darlene) Henke; one brother, Reggie Henke of Hillsboro, Ill.; two sisters, Mrs. Darvin (Kathy) Hamby of Newton, Ill., and Mrs. David (Linda) Kinderman of Panama; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Somers of Panama and Mrs. Alma Sportsman of Hillsboro. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Allege prisoners kept sleepy and tranquil in jail

Although Architect Henry Gabriel said Thursday his staff is moving at full speed to complete revised jail plans and specifications to permit a construction bid call in June or July, efforts to end alleged delay intensified during the weekend.

Alton and Edwardsville residents last week charged inaction, although Gabriel stressed they had not contacted him for a status report. Bonds were lowered to limit the number of new jail prisoners. And allegations were voiced

Saturday that drugs are being used to quiet prisoners due to jail overcrowding.

Jack Frandsen, a member of the Madison County Board's Building Committee, said he is checking on reports that jail drug distribution may exceed what is necessary for specific medicinal use.

Dr. Edward Mulvill of Alton, physician for the county jail, is being quoted as saying prisoners are often sedated because they have limited opportunities for recreation or exercise.

When a new jail is built, it is hoped to expand the recreational program.

GC and Nameoki values up; Venice, Chouteau reduced

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

A new reduction of nearly $4 million in property assessments in Venice Township and an increase of $10,227,025 in valuations of Granite City Township were disclosed Friday by Madison County assessing officials.

New assessments in the abstract certified to the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs also show a reduction of $2,136,590 in the assessments of Chouteau Township, and an increase of $674,970 in Nameoki Township valuations.

The reduction in Venice Township follows a pattern of steadily declining property valuations in that township, and like last year, again will mean more financial problems for the township's taxing agencies.

James Barton, Madison County supervisor of assessments, said the valuation cut in Venice Township includes another cut of $2.8 million in the real estate and personal property values of Union Electric Co. under an agreement reached last year after Union Electric asked the Board of Review to cut its assessments by half.

Barton said other reductions in the Venice Township assessments result from a "depreciation" factor. The new assessment figures for the Granite City area were established for the 1976 tax years and will be the basis for tax bills to be paid this summer.

According to Barton, the assessment ratio in Venice Township remains at 43.88 per cent of fair cash value, the same as it was last year. A cut in the assessment ratio this year would have resulted in even lower assessment totals for the township.

County assessment officials are charged under state law to establish the overall Madison County assessment ratio at 33.33 per cent of fair cash value.

This means, Barton said, that a reduction in the assessment ratio will be required in Venice Township next year. "It looks like things can be worse next year," he said. The state law requires the adjustment to a countywide 33.33 per cent ratio by 1978.

The cut given Union Electric in the new 1976 assessment includes $1.4 million real estate values and $1.4 million in personal property assessments. The same cuts were given Union Electric last year after the utility charged it was being assessed at a ratio of more than 50 per cent of fair cash value.

Last year's total assessment of Union Electric, after the $2.8 million reduction was granted by the Board of Review, was set at $22,385,000 for both real and personal property. This year the new assessment for the 1976 tax year has been set at $9,794,790 on real estate property and $9,846,500 on personal property, a total of $19,641,290.

The increase in the total assessment of Granite City Township results primarily from an 8 per cent increase set by the Board of Review by applying a 1.08 multiplying factor against the township's overall property assessment.

The new valuation for Granite City Township is $179,088,345, compared to $168,841,320 assessment set last year for the 1975 tax year, Barton said. Barton told the Press-Record that the application of a multiplying factor became necessary after it was determined that local assessments represented a 28.32 per cent assessment ratio, a drop from the 1975 ratio of 30.56 per cent.

The increase in the assessment does not necessarily mean an increase in the tax bill, because when assessments rise, the tax rate drops proportionately.

However, there are some instances in which the tax rates of the taxing bodies have been at statutory maximums, a factor that can raise taxes in accordance with these rates.

In Chouteau Township, the new assessment has been set at $29,500,570, compared to a 1975 value of $31,637,116.

Portell petition campaign

a petition drive seeking an Oct. 4 referendum on whether the Granite City street superintendent should be elected or appointed was launched Friday morning by "The People's Right to Vote Committee."

The committee was formed to oppose an April 26 vote action by the City Council which changes the street superintendent's job from elected to appointed once the current elective term expires in April 1979.

The petition drive is being supported by the current street superintendent, Lionel Portell, who says the attempt is "on behalf of the people's right to vote for all upcoming street superintendents, not just myself."

He said the drive "crosses party lines" and confessed that many of those who worked on behalf of opposition candidates have contacted him, offering to help keep the street superintendent's position an elected one.

In a meeting Friday morning with members of the newly-formed People's Right to Vote Committee, Portell explained that the petition campaign is being launched on the basis of a legal opinion given him by Attorney Leon Scroggins.

The lawyer said that petitions signed by 25 per cent of the registered voters in the city can force the city board of elections to call for a special election on the issue.

He estimated that less than 5,000 signatures will be needed, and said the committee's goal is to obtain 6,000 signatures on the petitions to avoid challenges. He said signed petitions will be turned over to the city elections board comprised of Mayor Paul Schuler, City Clerk Robert W. Stevens and Sam Whitmer, the alderman with the most seniority.

It will be the task of the elections board to determine whether the petitions and signatures are valid and to call for a referendum if the petitions are valid, it was related.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. Mildred "Neat" Crider, committee chairman, and Dorothy Bales, co-chairman. Robert "Leo" Wofford is the other co-chairman.

The petitions give the question, "Shall the office of superintendent of streets of the city of Granite City be an elective office?" The petitions say that when completed they should be returned only to Portell or Alderman Warren Decatur.

Portell said that more than 200 people have volunteered so (Continued on Page 19)

SIU to honor Fischer

Two Madison County business and civic leaders were designated Thursday by the Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees to receive distinguished service awards at the June 10 commencement exercise of SIU at Edwardsville.

Harold R. Fischer of Granite City and Jess A. Wilson of Wood River were recommended for the awards by the University

Committee for Honorary Degrees and Distinguished Service Awards and the president of SIUE.

Fischer, vice-chairman and former president and chairman of the First Granite City National Bank and Wilson, publisher of the Wood River Journal, were both influential in the development of the SIUE campus and both have been prime movers in the economic, civic and cultural development of the region, Dr. Shaw said.

The citations presented by the University Committee with the recommendations for the awards included the following information and commentary:

take petitions around their neighborhoods for signatures. "We have had a tremendous response from people of all political leanings and we are confident we can have 6,000 signatures by June 20, which is our target date."

"This drive is not mainly being pushed by myself or the committee."

"It's mainly just people — everyday, hard-working citizens — who are pushing this. We are providing the vehicle for people to get what they want," Portell told the Press-Record.

He also said donations to aid the petition drive have been pledged and additional donations are being accepted. Such funds will be used for the cost of printing petitions, publicity activities and other expenses directly related to the drive to return the street superintendent's position to an elected one, Portell said.

If donations exceeding $1,000 are received, the committee will file with Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles as a political committee, as required by law, he commented.

Although the petition drive was officially launched Friday morning, Portell at that time displayed three petitions bearing 75 signatures which had been obtained Thursday night by volunteers.

Four hundred petitions with spaces for 25 names each have been printed, it was said.

Another Illinois state statute which would call for a referendum with petitions signed by 10 per cent of those who actually voted in the last city election was studied by Scroggins. This was rejected because there were ways opponents could block action on these petitions, a committee member contended.

Portell noted, "We decided to seek signatures from more than 25 per cent of the registered voters in the city and we are committed to this now, due to the form of the petitions."

He also noted that the City Council on May 3 requested City Attorney George Filcoff to prepare a brief on the legality of the council's action changing the office from elected to appointed.

Filcoff is expected to present that brief at tomorrow night's council meeting.

Cycle, car collide; 3 injured

Three persons were injured when the auto of Mrs. Mildred DeBruce, 49, of 2824 Angela Drive, and the motorcycle of Richard Province, 24, East St. Louis, collided on Nameset Road at Wilson Avenue at 12:30 p.m. Thursday.

Both drivers and Miss Kimberly Kwasny, 16, East St. Louis, a passenger on the motorcycle who was thrown over Mrs. DeBruce's auto upon impact, were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, the motorcycle going by Granite City ambulance and Mrs. DeBruce being driven by her husband.

Cut area airport budget $191,000

Illinois senators slashed $191,000 from the operating budget of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority Friday, saying that the agency could ask for more money if the federal decision not to build an airport in the Columbia-Waterloo area is reversed. The agency has eight employees and a $363,000 budget for the fiscal year, beginning July 1. The authority director's salary was set at $44,840. An additional $20,800 also was cut from the agency's personnel budget, leaving little money for pay raises that had been requested. A total of $150,000 was allocated from the agency's fund for contractual services, most of which would have been paid the state attorney general's office for legal services. With no debate, the Senate Appropriations Committee voted 14-1 to reduce the authority's request by about 35 per cent.

Long Lake fire hail torn down

If you are driving by 4113 Penelon Road today and are looking for the Long Lake Fire hall, a landmark since 1958, it was torn down in four hours Saturday.

Construction of a new fire department building costing nearly $100,000 is scheduled to begin by mid-June if some of the final details can be worked out, according to Fire Chief C. Arnold Rutherford. Trucking firms such as Waggoner Trucking, Ready Cut Stone Co. and Helmkamp Trucking furnished trucks with Teamsters Local 585 having union members volunteer to drive. Teamster Charlie Rhoads of Ponton Beach coordinated the project, assisted by Steve Stamps and Larry Burns. Rutherford said the new hall, located on Ponton Beach, a member of Local 582, operated a high lift that loaded the trucks. "I sincerely want to thank all the unions, the companies and everyone that helped us."

Committee ok's fund for SIUE PE building

Senate Bill 314 which appropriates $190,000 to the Capital Development Board for planning of a physical education facilities at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville has been favorably reported out of the Senate Appropriations Committee 1, Senator Sam M. Vadalabene, (D-Edwardsville) said Friday. "This is the first step towards bringing a long needed facility to the University," Vadalabene commented. "Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville is the only major institution of higher education in the state without a permanent place to develop a strong physical education program. The bill also will allow Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to participate in a meaningful way in intercollegiate athletics. "I sponsored this legislation to dramatize drastic needs of the University. Actually this building should have been built years ago. Now the time has come to take another vital step in the growth of an institution that must serve the second most populous area in Illinois."

Cost squeeze may put college out of reach for many - Shaw

A federal task force examining the possibility of college tuition tax credits was urged Thursday by President Kenneth A. Shaw of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville to consider a program of tax incentives to prevent a "human energy crisis" in the nation.

In testimony placed in the record at a Congressional hearing conducted by the Task Force on Tax Expenditures, Government Organization and Regulation, Pres. Shaw warned that the nation's "middle-class citizens who seek higher education are caught in a crushing cost squeeze."

He asserted, "If you do not discover proper incentives for this great spectrum of our taxpaying constituents, our nation will be facing a human energy crisis far more dangerous, cruel and unjust than the energy crisis dominating the headlines right now."

The SIUE president said the task force, which is chaired by Congressman Paul Simon of Carbondale, should keep four major points in mind as various incentive proposals are considered:

—Immediate relief is needed for families caught in the "sibling squeeze," where two and sometimes three students are seeking a higher education at the same time.

—The programs in place for lower-income minorities must not be "lost in the shuffle."

—Closer attention must be paid to the so-called "part-time" student "who is making a positive social contribution as well as improving skills and appreciation at the sacrifice of available leisure time."

—Any program of relief or incentive must have safeguards to prevent existing institutions from simply using the increased benefits to further increase tuitions and relieve present budgetary problems.

Pres. Shaw said the nation must recognize that any citizen of value to the society of the future must continue the process of education as a lifetime commitment.

"This implies an over-riding national interest in the nurturing of our present educational resources, along with a basic policy of maximum feasible access of all citizens to these resources," he said.

Citing the financial squeeze which has developed, Dr. Shaw said, "What is properly construed as a right for the poor, and remains the privilege of the rich, has become the crushing cross of the middle class.

"The true basis for a healthy society is becoming more and more discouraged from strengthening its brains and expanding its heart."

He said it is important to continue programs for low-income minorities because "the programs represent a recognition of injustice and social imbalance which is still far from being redressed."

"A heavy body of evidence indicates that high tuition and fee costs have a seriously depressing effect on all enrollments, thus weakening our schools institutionally and creating, in effect, a policy of discouraging all our citizens from improving themselves educationally."

Urging consideration for part-time students, Dr. Shaw pointed out that the median age of the student body at SIUE is approaching 25. "All indications point to this as a national trend, with great promise for the future," he said.

The university president urged the task force to have the General Accounting Office make an intensive and exhaustive study of the fiscal implications of any proposed program before the plan is implemented. He said his assignment of the present situation is that "it is fraught with problems and pregnant with promise."

"Not only is the future of education in your hands, but with it the very keel—and wheel—of our ship of state, which is embarking on the third century of our great national voyage."

Dr. Shaw was invited to testify by Cong. Simon, former Troy newspaper publisher and Illinois lieutenant governor who is serving his second term as U.S. representative from the 11th Congressional District. Simon formerly represented the Quad-Cities in the state legislature.

Plan improvements at housing projects

Granite City Housing Authority Executive Director David Morgan said last week that current plans call for roof, door, canopy, lighting, energy connection and security improvements at various housing facilities.

The authority provides needed housing for larger numbers of good people and families, he told Granite City Rotarians, despite crowded conditions and a financial squeeze that began several years ago when the state altered the formula under which it assists aid recipients.

Virtually full tenancy is maintained and waiting lists are kept, he said. There are 451 apartments in 49 buildings at Kirkpatrick Homes and 200 units for the elderly in 37 structures at The Anchorage.

Morgan said that while policies are set by a city housing board, numerous federal guidelines and inspections closely monitor all GCHA directives and activities.

Due to frequent revision of federal mortgages for capital spending on remodeling and new construction, the U.S. will retain ownership well into the next century, it was explained. Established in May 1939, the authority has increasingly come under the jurisdiction of the U.S. Housing and Urban Development Department, which issues procedural changes each month, he related.

In lieu of property taxes, the authority pays $20,000 to $25,000 yearly, believed to be more than twice what would be produced if similar acreage was subdivided, Morgan said.

The investment in facilities is estimated at $7,070,000.

Walter Milton was program chairman.

His most recent job has been as a clerk in the police department under the manpower program. He formerly was employed by Granite City Glass Co. and Ravanelli's Restaurant.

Glenn Tonsor Jr., a sophomore at Granite City High School North, was honored last week at a meeting of Ring One, International Brotherhood of Magicians, at the brotherhood's meeting in the Colony Hotel, Clayton, Mo.

Tonsor, 16, has been a practicing magician since first becoming interested in the realm of sorcery as a second grade pupil at Nameoki School. He was honored at the Brotherhood of Magicians meeting specifically for his efforts in helping to start the Youthsayers, a club for teenage magicians.

The honoree has been a member of the group for the past four years.

The Youthsayers presented a magic show for their adult counterparts and guests at the meeting.

Tonsor has been invited by Granite City Patrolman J. W. Apperson, widely-known local magician, to assist him in teaching free classes in magic each Saturday at the Tri-Cities Area YMCA.

Previously, the youthful wizard has performed at St. Louis, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and for several senior citizens' groups.

For the past five years, he has appeared in benefit shows for the St. Louis Heart Fund and his performance was telecast on KSD-TV Channel 5 news. He has also appeared with CM St. James on Corky the Clown show.

In addition to his expertise in the field of "abracadabra," Tonsor is a member of the Free Lane Repertory Players at North High School and was in the Spring Follies.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tonsor Sr., 2106 Woodlawn Ave.

Fidella Doolin heads BPW state federation

Miss M. Fidella Doolin of Carbondale was installed as president of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs for 1977-78 at the annual state convention held at the Holiday Inn O'Hare-Kennedy, Chicago.

Among the 1,058 delegates attending were 10 members of the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

Two local club members were named by Miss Doolin to state appointments at the concluding brunch.

They are Miss Annellen Smith, who will serve as state membership chairman, and Mrs. Faslaine Weir, who was appointed to a six-year term on the board of the State Headquarters Fund.

Miss Annabel Woodring of the Collinsville BPW Club was elected state recording secretary and installed with Miss Doolin at the "grand finale" banquet.

Mrs. Makine Mullins and Mrs. Ruth Shaw, also members of the Collinsville BPW, were appointed state Young Careerist chairman and member of the Celia M. Howard Fellowship Fund, respectively. Principal speakers at the 56th annual convention were Eugene

Bond payroll drive opens at GC Steel

A U.S. savings bond campaign to enroll employees in the payroll savings plan for buying bonds will be held at Granite City Steel today through May 27. It has been announced by Vice President Donald F. Cairns, this year's GC Steel campaign chairman.

Granite City Steel cooperates with the U.S. Treasury Department by holding a drive each year to give employees an opportunity to invest in their futures through payroll deductions to purchase bonds or increase their bond purchases.

Monthly savings of $18.75 are worth $1,272 in five years under present Treasury interest rates.

"These bonds can be used for such worthwhile purposes as a child's education, for retirement income, or to save for a special purchase, gift or trip. They can be turned into cash in case of an emergency after holding them 60 days from the date on each bond," Cairns commented.

"There are 9 1/2 million Americans now buying bonds by this method.

"The Treasury Department points out that there is no better — or safer — way to save. Bonds are a guaranteed investment and, in turn, they guarantee savings.

"The payroll savings plan is as close to being a painless way to save as any program yet devised.

"Treasury also reminds us that the savings bond program is vital to the sound management of America's financial obligations. Bonds are a crucial factor in the non-inflationary administration of the national debt, and they contribute in no small measure to the overall stability of the dollar."

Series E savings bond interest accrues at the rate of six per cent when held to maturity of five years.

Granite City Steel employees may have as little as $1 per pay applied to the purchase of bonds.

Cairns reported that a total of 12 Series E bonds — eight $50 bonds and four $25 bonds — will be given away at the end of the campaign, six to new bond buyers and six to employees increasing the amount of their savings. A matching bond will go to the canvasser of each of the 12.

"I urge every person at Granite City Steel to take advantage of this opportunity for safe, easy, sure savings," Cairns concluded.

Organist Jim Havranek accompanied Mrs. Louise Lewis as she sang, "Sunrise, Sunset," "Sunrise on My Shoulders," "O Perfect Love," "Wedding Song," "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Florence Stokes, 2525 East 27th St., and Robert Day of Portageville, Mo. Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Mueller, reside at 720 Layton Road, East St. Louis.

For her wedding the former Miss Day wore her mother's wedding gown fashioned of white satin and designed in a colonial style with a fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline accenting a net yoke traced with lace.

The long sleeves were trimmed with matching lace and formed points over the wrists. The lace trim was repeated at the hemline and encircled the cathedral train.

Her tripe veil of illusion was edged with Venice lace and pearls and secured with a camelot cap of pearled lace. She held a colonial bouquet of white carnations, yellow roses and baby's breath, festooned with lace streamers.

Honor attendant Debbie Kierski and bridesmaids Stephanie Gerboe, Martha Mueller, the groom's sister, Mrs. Diana Simmons and Miss Mary Wasyiak, a cousin of the bride, chose identical gowns in rainbow colors, of pink, blue, green, apricot and yellow.

Their gowns were created in an Empire style with sleeveless

Parents of the bride are Mrs. Dorothy Bettag, 221 Granville St., Venice, and Jack Bettag of Granite City. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robbie Brasfield, 1701 Third St., Madison.

Organist Mrs. Louise Lewis accompanied Mrs. Ruth Markham as she sang, "I'll be Yours Only Just Begun."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride, selected a delicately lace bodice gown created with long fitted sleeves set into a molded bodice featuring a high stand-up collar edged with greenery.

The bouffant skirt of lace tiers cascaded into a full length cathedral train.

She wore floor length white gowns featuring a red embroidered trim at the square necklines, cuffs of the short puffed sleeves, and defining the gathered flounce at the hemlines.

A red velvet sash, tied in the manner, marked the natural waistlines. Each attendant wore a matching picture hat, and held a long stem red rose festooned with baby's breath and red streamers.

Shannon Greg served as the flower girl. She was dressed in a frock identical to the adult attendants and she carried a bouquet of red and white pom poms.

Robbie Posten was the ringbearer.

The groom chose his brother, Jim Brasfield, as best man. Kent Bosworth, Bill Coghlan and Jim Caple, served as groomsmen and ushers.

Honor 453 students, employers Parade of Flags set for May 30

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

"The older I get, I'm sure less and less of what I know," Alfred Fleishman, chairman emeritus of Fleishman-Hillard Inc., public relations counselors in St. Louis, told 453 students, employers and guests last week.

The occasion was the third annual "Off Campus" banquet at Granite City High School South cafeteria.

Attending were students from Granite City School District 9 involved in the Off Campus—Cooperative Education programs, their employers or firm representatives, school administrators and other guests.

Fleishman, author, lecturer at area universities, and adjunct professor in the Communication Arts Department at The Lindenwood Colleges, stressed the importance of human communication in everyday life.

"You young people are lucky. You have businessmen and others here tonight who are interested in helping you. Take a lesson from this."

"I see thousands and thousands of young people in St. Louis who don't know what it is to work, and come from homes where no one knows what it is to work."

"You are so far ahead of them because you are learning more than just to work. You are learning far more than you think you're learning."

"You are learning to deal with people. Whether you work behind a counter, in an office or elsewhere, you are learning the most important thing in life is the ability to communicate."

The speaker continued, "I am 56 years away from being a high school graduate, but I can remember looking up there at young old codger on the stage and wondering—What can he tell me? What does he know about what I want to do with my life?"

"The fact is the older I get, I'm sure less and less of what I know."

"The last part of the prayer given here tonight... listen to it, it's more than a prayer, it is a philosophy."

"Dear God, please bring us together, the people who need each other, who can help each other, and would to enjoy each other."

Fleishman told his audience to "think about it. You are no better than the lowest animal on the face of the earth if you don't do something for yourself and for others. You are not a sufficient human being, if you don't."

"At some time in your life, you are going to need help. Don't forget this," Fleishman said.

"Working in a drug store about 13 years old, I began to learn the most powerful word in the English language is 'thank you,' and surveys taken now show it is true."

"The emotion aroused in people by a simple 'thank you' is tremendous."

He went on to illustrate his point by relating an incident occurring during his tenure at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C.

"You are going to find out years later that people remember you because you said 'thank you.' How much better than remembering you because you didn't say 'thanks.'"

"Learn all you can about human communication. Read about it and learn from your textbooks and anywhere else. Read 'The Effect of Words on the Nervous System' if you want to know how words and human communication works."

"When you read a newspaper, notice how many times, if someone has been killed, the phrase appears—'killed after an argument.'"

"Note words came first—an argument—and the killing came second."

"Things can look beautiful. It is the people who make it that way," Fleishman concluded.

Granite City Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis extended a welcome to the students and guests, and members of the Board of Education were introduced by Thomas G. Miel, board president.

Donald Shaffner, Off-Campus Education coordinator served as master of ceremonies and introduced Miss Virginia Foster and Mrs. Pat Kozien, Health Occupations coordinators.

He also recognized Don Davinroy, Office Occupations, and Mrs. Janet Davinroy, Personal and Public Services, both from North High School; and Mrs. Barbara Coleman, Personal and Public Services, Mrs. Jeanette Holder, Office Occupations, and Bob Gagliano, Work-Study Program, all at South High School.

James Dumont, principal of the host school, and Gilbert Walmsley, principal of North High, were introduced.

Also introduced to the assembled guests were Frank Kraus, assistant superintendent of schools; Robert Maxwell, director of Vocational Education; Roy McConkey, new vocational placement counselor; and Mrs. Arlene Smith, Off Campus office secretary.

Carol Werner, school administrator for Alternative Education, Coordinated Youth Services, offered the invocation.

Music was provided by the Pep Band from Granite City High School North under the supervision of Dan Todoroff. Colored pennants, stenciled with the names of companies participating in the Off Campus Cooperative Education programs, had been created by students and were strung above the dining tables.

Shaffner announced 285 students are enrolled in the Off Campus—Cooperative Education programs at 145 employment (training) stations.

Officials see computer system

A new compact computer system for Illinois county governments was demonstrated at a conference at the Illinois Association of County Officials, held in Springfield.

Ronald P. Lucas, Madison County recorder of deeds, Harold "Gene" Briggs, educational service region superintendent, and Fred Dalton, Dutch Parish, Mike Semanish, H. E. Milton Jr., Homer Henke, Walter Sparks, Nelson Hagnauer, Frank Virod and Glen Bode of the Madison County Board attended the special seminar and received a first-hand demonstration of the new system.

Named COGS (Computerized On-line Governmental Services), the system automatically performs more than 50 duties required of county clerks, treasurers and supervisors of assessments—including maintaining permanent voter records, computing assessments and issuing tax bills, and government management.

A spokesman for the Association of County Officials said COGS features security of government records. Every function is pre-programmed within the computer, making it relatively tamper-free. In addition, records never leave the county officials' offices.

Developed by Fidler and Chambers, Davenport, Ia., the system includes three basic pieces of equipment: a compact computer in the design of a file cabinet, and a security type and rapid printer, which is each desktop model.

Ralph Anderson, president of Fidler and Chambers, said COGS may virtually revolutionize government record keeping. "There's no requirement for a big outfit of taxpayers' dollars to install the system and no need to add to the county's payroll," he told the gathering.

The first such system was installed in Christian County this year.

Other highlights of the meeting included an address by Governor James R. Thompson. The association meets twice annually to discuss and seek solutions to mutual problems in local-level government.

Chouteau proposes $31,000 to furnish town building

At a public hearing in the new Chouteau Township town hall and community center building held last week, the trustees proposed devoting about $31,000 in federal revenue sharing for furnishing and operating the new building.

The meeting was the first held in the new building, which is not yet completed. The lights could not be used because open wires would present a hazard, but there was sufficient sunlight to conduct the meeting.

About 14 persons attended to comment on the plans for use of the grant money. All of the township's revenue sharing and community development grant funds have been devoted in the past toward paying for construction of the building.

It is anticipated sufficient funds remain in those accounts to pay the final construction costs, thus allowing this fiscal year's grants to be used for operation and other expenses.

Township Supervisor Walter "Dick" Sparks said about $10,000 will be used to furnish the kitchen, $5,000 will be needed for tables and chairs, $2,000 for insurance, $10,000 to $12,000 for operating the building and paying utilities and the remainder will be used for furnishings.

Electric hand dryers for the three restrooms has been proposed but may prove too expensive since the electrical contractor has requested $1,800 for providing and installing five electric dryers.

The trustees now will prepare the township's budgets, using ideas expressed at the hearing.

The types of furnishings desired were selected during a joint meeting of the Chouteau Town Board of Auditors and the township's Community Development Advisory Committee Tuesday evening.

Simon wants congressional relatives' finances disclosed

Rep. Paul Simon, D-24th, with Rep. George O'Brien, R-17th, as cosponsor, is offering a bill to require spouses and children to make the same financial disclosures required of House members themselves.

Simon said last week his bill would also require lawyers and other professionals who receive fees to report the sources and amounts.

"We need to assure the public that members of the House aren't hiding income, assets or liabilities by attributing them to spouses or children," explained Simon, who has made financial disclosures for 22 years.

Anticipating arguments from attorneys and other professionals that disclosure would violate their codes of ethics, Simon said such arguments don't hold water.

"All you need to do is to tell your clients in advance that you'll take their cases if they don't mind their names and fees being disclosed," he said.

"If a member of the House thinks such information is none of the public's business, he or she can simply retire from office and let someone fill the seat."

Rabies clinics to begin today

Owners of dogs and cats in the Quad-City area may have their pets inoculated against rabies at any one of six clinics between today and Thursday, May 26.

The vaccination fee is $5 per pet. Pets four months old or older should be inoculated each year, a spokesman said.

All clinics this week will be conducted by the staff of the Bellemore Animal Hospital and will be open from 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Monday's clinic will be at the Venice City Garage; Tuesday will be at the Madison City Garage; Wednesday the clinic will be at the Pontoon Beach Village Hall; Thursday in the Nameoki Township Garage, and Friday at the Granite City Animal Shelter.

Dr. Joe Helm of Edwardsville will conduct a separate clinic Thursday, May 26 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. in the Chouteau Township Garage behind the Midwest Motel.

At Friday's clinic in Granite City, a city tax of $1 for male dogs and $2 for females will be collected. CC Humane Officers Andy Chiappa said.

The group hopes to "save taxpayers millions of dollars." The new Senate Committee on Reorganization of State Government is holding hearings and reviewing two executive orders issued by Governor James Thompson, calling for reorganization of the Department of Law Enforcement and establishment of a new Department of Administrative Services consisting of the present departments of finance and general services.

The committee, which must report its findings to the full Senate prior to May 30, is made up of several Democratic and Republican Senators. It may recommend approval, disapproval or modification and amendment of the executive orders.

"I am honored to have been selected for this important assignment," Vadalabene commented, "because our deliberations could well lead to improved state government organization and tax savings."

"It is good that the executive and legislative branches are looking for ways to modernize and streamline the operation of our state government."

State study of urban water pollution control

Methods to implement a state plan for controlling water pollution at the local level will be discussed at meetings to be held by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency in eight urban areas over the next several weeks.

Urban stormwater steering committees composed of local officials and interested citizens in Rockford, Moline, Decatur, Springfield, Bloomington, Normal, Kankakee, Champaign-Urbana and Peoria are meeting to develop control measures for keeping urban water pollutants from entering lakes and rivers during rainstorms.

Such pollutants include heavy metals from streets from car exhaust and industrial fallout, sediment from construction sites, fertilizers and pesticides from lawns and golf courses, transmission fluids, litter and naturally-occurring organic matter and atmospheric particles.

Stream samples, to be taken during rainstorms this summer and fall, will help committee members assess the severity of water pollution problems from urban areas. Local-level agencies will conduct sampling programs.

Other state planning groups are assessing water pollution problems caused by mining, construction and farming practices in IEPA's clean water planning program.

A state plan for controlling polluted runoff from such areas, mandated by Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972, will be developed by Illinois citizens and IEPA planning groups by the fall of 1978.

Urban steering committee meetings, open to the public, will be held in: Rockford, May 19, 10 a.m.; Rockford City Hall.

Moline-Rock Island-Davenport area, May 20, 10 a.m.; Bi-State Metropolitan Planning Commission.

Champaign-Urbana, May 27, 10 a.m.; Sanitary District offices.

defense, in the belief they can handle situations. Then, when a $5 inspection "come-on" esootes into a "repair" job, they're frightened into paying the bill and too embarrassed to reveal the problem in a timely fashion.

Scott said another defense for home owners is to firmly fix in their minds the determination to do business only with locally-established firms and stick with that determination in spite of persuasion and intimidations.

One way to "weed out" itinerant rip-off artists — who may use cards with local telephone answering service phone numbers and addresses — is to check for the firm's listing in the telephone directory, he commented.

Scott said another means of identifying "rip-off artists" is the manner of their "sales pitch."

If the salesman insists that the work must be performed immediately, or the "offer" is only good for that one day, or if he offers to drive the home owner to the bank to get cash, the odds are the home owner is going to be "ripped off."

If he or she will get no work done, or a fake repair done, for the money, the attorney general said.

His Consumer Protection Division aggressively pursues "sting" operators, he said, recovering money for customers and putting operations out of business when possible, but the "best line of defense is an alert consumer."

Two held in GC burglary

David L. Ing, 23, and Ray L. Beaton, 29, both of the Salvation Army Halfway House, St. Louis, were charged Thursday in Granite City with burglary.

Police alleged the two were involved in a burglary at the home of Mrs. Mary Look, 2015 Washington Ave., Apt. 4, Wednesday in which a combination stereo and radio, two speakers and two children's banks containing change were stolen.

A witness' description of a pickup truck which left the scene aided police in locating the truck, stopped for a train on Edwardsville Road, and arresting the driver and two occupants.

It was alleged the stereo, speakers and banks were seen in the bed of the truck. After questioning the three men, the driver was released to Jefferson City, Mo., officials to determine if a violation of the terms of his prison work-release have been violated.

Officers alleged Ing and Beaton also were on a work-release program at the Salvation Army Halfway House. Bond was set at 3 p.m. Thursday at $20,000 on Beaton and $15,000 on Ing and they were taken to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville.

Local Arrow lodge again honored by scout region

Harvey L. Price, chief scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America, addressed scouts of the North Central Region at a luncheon Friday at the Stouffer's Riverfront Towers, St. Louis, and helped honor the local council.

The two-day meeting started Thursday with a regional board meeting, regional standing committee meeting and 14 seminars concerning finance, relationships, scouting for the handicapped, camping, exploring and communications. The Silver Antelope award, highest recognition earned by volunteers on a regional level, was presented to five scouting volunteers at Thursday's recognition dinner.

The Order of the Arrow Lodges of the Cahokia Mound Council, Granite City, and Southeast Iowa Council, Burlington, received the E. Urner Goodman award given for effective long-term promotion, publication of "where to go" camping booklets and service projects at council camps.

The North Central Region, with headquarters located in Kansas City, Mo., has 44 councils and over 400,000 youth and leaders in Colorado, Iowa, Wyoming, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Kansas, Missouri, Wisconsin and Illinois.

Price spoke to almost 600 scouts of the region at the luncheon Friday.

He said, "We trust that the use of the scouting program by the chartered organizations — churches, services, veteran, fraternal and educational — preserves the accepted values each organization sees for itself as affecting the future of society by fostering desirable change."

"The organization's faith in the worth of its goals and the public acceptance of these goals leads to the conclusion that a meaningful experience of membership would be desirable for all youth willing to accept the principles embodied in the code or promise of the appropriate branch of the program."

Price paid tribute to the 1½ million adult volunteers in the nation who make cubbing, scouting and exploring possible for 3½ million youth in 46,330 packs, troops and posts in chartered organizations.

Signal bleed over can block CB conversation

By LIL SQUAW

Let's talk about hate and discontent. "Hate and discontent" is a term CBers use that means a lot of things. It can be anything from a slight disagreement to a full fledged war.

I personally don't care for all the hate and discontent on the radio. But it is very easy to fight and argue on the radio.

Since you are not face to face, you may say things on the radio sometimes that you wouldn't say in person.

Bleed over — a signal splattering over from one channel to another — especially bleed over coming from a neighbor, can cause all kinds of hate and discontent.

I can understand why. It is frustrating to talk to someone and not be able to hear the other person due to bleed over.

There are improvements being made in equipment all the time. There is a transmitter CB radio from Sweden that is supposed to have up to 80 per cent side channel rejection — 80 per cent, that is, on the base units. Rejection on a mobile is a lot less.

It's not available in Granite City yet. At least, it wasn't the last time I checked.

Personality clashes very often cause hate and discontent. The same kinds of differences that cause fighting and fussing off the air are the same kinds of things that cause troubles on the air.

Sometimes the sound of a person's voice can drive one to say nasty things.

Skiland can sometimes cause hate and discontent. I discussed skip in an earlier article.

I related the fact that skip conditions can cause the mobile CBer to be unable to hear anything local. Some folks get agitated when they can't get through.

Some folks on channel 5 decided last summer that no one was going to shoot and skip on channel 5. That caused a regular war on the channel. People were arguing and fussing for two days.

It is hard to write the articles I have been writing, as they cause a certain amount of hate and discontent; as they say, you can't please all the people. I try, but it is not possible.

A few people don't understand that I do not write for any personal glory, but rather so that folks will be able to read about CB and CBers in the Press-Record.

Misunderstandings cause most of the hate and discontent that comes out of your radio, and should be taken with a grain of salt.

Most often, two fellows who are fighting like crazy one day are the best of friends the next. So, don't take the fussing you hear on the radio too seriously. It's just one of the people, if not professional, parts of the CB world.

If there's one thing you can say about CBers, it's that they're human, and they are prone to act badly sometimes, just as we all are. Catch ya later, the Lil Squaw, we're out.

Harold Hillyer to conduct All-City Band Festival

The Granite City School District will sponsor its fifth All-City Band Festival at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Memorial Gymnasium at Granite City High School South.

The first festival was initiated in 1973 and proved to be so successful the sponsors elected to make the concert an annual event, school officials noted.

Three bands will perform in the festival, including a combined high school band consisting of students from both North and South high schools; a junior high band composed of pupils from Coolidge, Frasier and Grigsby schools and an elementary school band made up of children from both the Nameoki and Lake Division bands. About 300 musicians will participate in the festival with each of the three groups presenting separate programs of music.

Auditions and rehearsals are currently under way with the local band directors in charge until the day of the concert when the guest conductor will arrive to work with the students for the evening program.

The guest conductor for the 1977 festival will be Harold Hillyer.

Hillyer is director of bands at EIU. He joined the Eastern Illinois faculty in 1972 where he is an assistant professor of music and specializes in cornet and trumpet.

Hillyer received his training in the public schools of Montrose, Colo., the University of Michigan, Wichita State University and the University of Southern California during which time he studied with Loyde Hillyer, William D. Revelli, Clifford Lillya, James P. Robertson, Clarence E. Sawhill, Ralph Rush and Ingolf Dahl.

He received the degree of Bachelor of Music Education from Wichita State University and the Master of Music from the University of Southern California. Hillyer has taught high school music in the states of Colorado, California, New Jersey, before joining the faculty at Eastern Illinois. He was director of bands at the University of Texas at El Paso for ten years.

Hillyer is a member of the College Band Directors National Association, the MENC, Phi Beta Mu, American School Band Directors Association, Kappa Kappa Psi (National Honorary Band Fraternity), Tau Beta Sigma (National Honorary Band Sorority), American Bandmasters Association and is listed in Who's Who in American Education. He has served as clinician, adjudicator, lecturer and guest conductor throughout the southwest and mid-western states.

This is his fifth year at Eastern Illinois University where he is director of the Symphonic Wind Ensemble, the Marching Band of EIU and he supervises all band activities. The public is invited to attend the festival.

House passes bill on heating homes

Legislation aimed at preventing loss of life and property during periods of cold weather, sponsored by State Representatives Everett G. Steele and Joe Lucero of Madison County, passed the Illinois House last week.

The measure (HB 621) requires utility and power companies to notify the township supervisor or the Illinois Department of Public Health when a residence's heating source is cut off in the months of November through March.

It also provides that the owners of rental property or mortgage holders can request to be notified by a utility or power company when the heat is shut off to a residence in which they have an interest.

"During the past winter, several persons died in our state and severe property damage occurred in some homes where the heat source was terminated during periods of extremely cold weather," Rep. Steele, a Glen Carbon Republican, explained.

Rep. Lucero, Edwardsville Democrat, added, "In our district an elderly woman froze to death this winter after her heat had been shut off. Had the proper authorities been notified of the situation, her life could have been saved."

In another instance, Steele said, "A residence incurred over $12,000 in damages without heat being turned off during severe weather, the pipes froze and the floor and other sections of the home were severely damaged."

"The utility bill was ignored by the renter, and when the heat was turned off during severe weather, the pipes froze and the floor and other sections of the home were severely damaged."

"The utility had no knowledge of the situation until it was too late. This legislation, which now goes to the Senate for approval, would have prevented that kind of situation because the utility would have been required to notify the owner or mortgage holder had notification been requested," he said.

Commenting on the bill, Lucero added, "The intent of this legislation is to preserve lives and protect property. Rep. Steele and myself are gratified with the overwhelming support this bill received both in committee and on the House floor. We hope for the same kind of support in the Senate."

Budget too tight—Portell

Circuit Clerk Willard V. "Butch" Portell charged Friday that an inadequate budget allocation for the December 1976-November 1977 fiscal year is creating a false appearance of over-spending by his staff.

He described comments by Fred Dalton, a Collinsville member of the Madison County Board, as politically motivated.

"We are not picking on you. We are picking on your office," Dalton said at a meeting of the board's Finance Committee. The budgeted spending pace cannot be adhered to because it was set about $60,000 to $64,000 lower than needed, the circuit clerk contended. Chairman William Little of Alton said he is unaware of such a budget cutback.

Portell said there is "nit-picking" because he allowed four employees to attend a traffic seminar in Springfield and that one went to Chicago to analyze traffic tickets processing methods.

"Every other major office except yours is making a concerted effort to stay within the budget," Dalton said. Portell replied, "I just can't do it. You are asking me to run a three-minute mile."

The clerk cited extensive county revenue provided by his office in the form of fees and fines.

He noted an economy move in which federal manpower employees are being used in some jobs instead of placing workers on the county payroll.

Allege

cost about $700 monthly, for an average of 71 persons, compared to $475 to 170 in St. Clair County.

Frandsen said drug purchases are from various pharmacies and are well distributed among Madison County suppliers. He said his committee does not seek to influence where purchases are made.

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler, owner of a drug store, said prescriptions are decided on by the physician for specific individuals.

It is being alleged that "nearly a third of the purchases are made at a pharmacy partly owned" by the mayor.

Conrad "Pete" Baetz, public information spokesman in the sheriff's office, said all drugs administered from the jail are at the direction of Dr. Mulvill.

"State law requires us to provide medical care, and because of the physical condition of the 45-capacity jail we probably have more than our share of people in stress."

"There's no doubt that if we had recreational facilities and a more up-to-date jail, we would have less drug bills," Baetz said.

Baetz said drug users are among those brought in for incarceration, and two current prisoners receive methadone treatment.

Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagopian has denied any participation in jail drug volume or purchase decisions.

Tranquilizers and sleeping pills are said to be among the most frequently prescribed medications at the jail.

Federal standards call for emphasis on recreational opportunities for prisoners.

Illinois officials with partial jurisdiction over jail policies stress that county jails are not prisons and that the average stay by a prisoner is much shorter than at correctional facilities. This fact reduces the need for extensive recreation space, the state authorities who consider jail designs comment.

Barton said the drop in that township resulted despite a multiplying factor of 1.15 applied against lands and improvements on lands.

In Nameoki Township, the 1976 assessment for tax collections this year set at $45,000,760, up slightly from last year's figure of $44,415,700.

There were no multiplying figures set for either Venice or Nameoki Townships this year, Barton said, although changes probably will be required next year in the final phase of the three-year adjustment period set by the state in accomplishing the 35.35 per cent assessment ratio.

Schools Out dance theme

"Schools Out" is the theme for a dance from 6:30 p.m. until 11:30 p.m. Saturday at the former W. T. Grant building in the Nameoki Village Shopping Center, 3400 Nameoki Road.

Tickets are $1.50 and are being sold by Explorers in the area.

Music will be furnished by a rock group known as "High Wire."

Proceeds from the dance will go to the Explorer Pests for their unit activities.

The dance is being coordinated by Explorer Post 10-4 of Madison.

Bruce Rottor and Cindy Warren are ticket chairmen. Assisting the Explorers with the dance are the Granite City Elks, Mexican Honorary Commission, Pontoon Beach Lions and the Disabled American Veterans.

Rep. Melvin Price out of hospital

U.S. Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) returned Friday to his home in suburban Falls Church, Va., from the U.S. Naval Medical Center in Washington, D.C.

Rep. Price, 72, is "getting along very well" after a full recovery from a hernia operation April 17, he expects to resume work at the Capitol next week, the congressman's office said. Price is chairman of the House Armed Services Committee.

The committee has sought reports from 16 department heads on apparent budget excesses, said it has heard from all but the coroner and animal control offices.

Dalton estimated that, based on first-quarter data processing projections, salary cost overruns might total $79,000 by the end of the year.

Portell said he plans some layoffs this summer but stressed that the County Board must make substantial cuts in the funds he has needed during the last three years.

"If we cut you $200,000, I'd still expect you to live within your budget," Dalton asserted.

Legislation would ban false ID's

Bogus identification used to commit offenses from welfare fraud to illegal immigration would be outlawed by Cong. Henry J. Hyde, R-Ill. Day.

Hyde said last week he is introducing legislation recommended by the Justice Department's Federal Advisory Committee on False Identification in a final report last November after a two-year investigation.

Hyde does not favor a national identification card, but he said some of the "glaring loopholes" both in state and federal legislation should be closed at savings of $10 billion annually to U.S. taxpayers.

Hyde's bill would prohibit: 1. False application for federal documents.

2. Use of the mails or other interstate communications to obtain state identification documents fraudulently.

3. Unauthorized making or altering of any federal identification document.

4. Unauthorized making or altering of sale or delivery, of any similar state document to obtain a federal document.

5. Use of the mails or other interstate communication to send false identification documents, whether state or federal, or any such document intended for improper use.

Hyde said a "growing army of criminals and fugitives" is using bogus identification for everything from driving, from drug smuggling, illegal immigration, credit card and securities swindles to fraud against the government.

He said falsely-obtained birth certificates frequently become "the breeder documents" for other bogus identification documents, such as Social Security cards and driver's licenses.

He said just about any bogus identification required "can be purchased in virtually every large city in the U.S. for whatever the traffic will bear."

Driver charged after crash

Ricky J. Muckenturm, 18, of 1024A Roger Ave., was arrested and charged with careless driving, improper lane usage and failure to give aid following a one-car accident at 4:20 a.m. Saturday in the 1100 Block of Pontoon Road.

Police said an auto driven west on Pontoon Road left the roadway, striking a mail box, a walking pole, shrubbery and then a garage at the home of William Bremer, 1104 Pontoon Road.

It was reported that the garage's brick wall was broken upon impact, and a deep freeze unit inside the garage was damaged.

Muckenturm, who reportedly was injured, allegedly fled the scene and was apprehended by police at St. Thomas Road and Chasler of Rocks Road, reports said.

Driver injured

Walter O. Nelson, 42, of 2630 East 24th St., was injured at 1:10 p.m. Saturday when his auto was struck on the driver's side by an auto driven by Eric K. Settles, 21, of 3856 Lake Drive, at 25th Street and Nameoki Road.

Police reported the Kettle auto was southbound on Nameoki Road when the driver observed a red signal light, applied his brakes but then struck the Nelson auto when his foot slipped off of the brake pedal and went onto the accelerator. Settles was ticketed for failing to reduce speed to avoid an accident and disobeying a traffic signal.

Nelson was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital and admitted with cuts to his head and left knee.

Man arrested on damage charge

Russell K. Pulley, 20, of 2515 Lincoln Ave., was arrested and charged with criminal damage to property after a vehicle matching a description of one involved in a slender-crashing in a van belonging to Larry Sorenson, 2431 Lincoln Ave., was stopped in the 2400 Block of Washington Avenue by police and Pulley was found inside.

Sorenson reported to 10:35 p.m. Friday that an auto with three or four persons in it came to his home and that one of them broke three windows of his van with a chain.

Authorities said they saw the auto in the 2200 Block of Lincoln Avenue and arrested Pulley upon halting it.

Anton Burich dies at 74

Anton Burich, 74, of 1424 Grand Ave., died at 11:30 p.m. Friday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where he had been a patient 10 days.

Born in Ravna Gora, Yugoslavia, Mr. Burich lived here 58 years and retired as a mechanical supervisor at Granite City Steel following 45 years service.

Mr. Burich was a member and past secretary-treasurer of United Steelworkers Local 67, and was a member of St. Joseph Roman Catholic Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Mary (Slim) Burich; two sons, Tony of Granite City and Donald of Riverview, Mo.; four daughters, Mrs. Trevor (Evelyn) Howe of Ames, Iowa; Mrs. Steve (Audrey) Fitzgerald of Florissant, Mo.; Mrs. Edward (Mary Alice) Ferris of South St. Louis; and Mrs. Michael (Gloria) Garcia of Madison; 14 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Mrs. Walter, 83, dies suddenly

Mrs. Alma G. Walter, 83, of 2701 Center St., was pronounced dead at 6 a.m. Sunday at a St. Louis County Hospital where she was taken after she was stricken while visiting at the home of a son in Glendale, Mo.
